

Do you have problems with swallowing and memory? Please join our study!

What is this study about?

People with swallowing problems often have weak tongues and/or dry mouths. We are studying which treatments are best for people who have trouble swallowing AND have memory issues, like dementia.

What will you and your caregiver do in this study?

What	Where	When	Payment at end of study
Visit 1 Patient – tests Caregiver – questionnaires	UW Hospital*	Beginning of study	Patient - $50 Caregiver - $50
Treatment activities	Your home	Up to 90 min. weekly
4 Check-in phone calls 1 Mailed forms to fill out	Your home	Calls once/week Forms once at end	$5 per call ($20 total) each for Patient and Caregiver
Visit 2 Patient – tests Caregiver –questionnaires	UW Hospital*	End of study (8 weeks later)	Patient - $50 Caregiver - $50
*Visits to UW Hospital will coordinate with regular care appointments scheduled by your doctor.			Total Payment Patient: up to $125 Caregiver: up to $125

Dr. Nicole Pulia
Lead Researcher

If you are interested in participating in this study,
please contact the Swallow Lab,
swallowlab@medicine.wisc.edu
Research Coordinator: 608-262-995
Swallow Office: 608-263-1344